

Taking Personal Responsibility in Rebuilding the Walls

Nehemiah 3:28

Above the Horse Gate the priests carried out repairs, each in front of his house.

Portions of the wall of Jerusalem were rebuilt by groups of people and other major sections were rebuilt by the individual families that lived immediately opposite that part of the wall. Somebody else wasn't going to build their part of the wall. They were personally responsible. In rebuilding our spiritual walls we are personally responsible. No one else, no matter how much they love or care for us, can build our walls.

1. I need to take the responsibility to rebuild my own spiritual walls.

Romans 14:12

2. I need to forgive and let go of the past.

Philippians 3:13

3. I need to know God's plan and be grateful I can rebuild my spiritual walls.

Nehemiah 4:15, Psalm 119:156

4. I need to work the plan.

Nehemiah 4:6, 1 Corinthians 10:31

5. I need to accept God's grace when I fail and get back to work.

Psalm 37:3, Proverbs 3:5
